

LA Hallucinations

Carly Rae Jepsen

I remember being naked
We were young freaks just fresh to L.A.
Never cared about the fake kids
We would write and sing and wear whatever
But money makes your whole world spin
'Til everything is dizzying, and suddenly Planes I'm hopping, cards I'm dropping
No shop can fill me up
There's a little black hole in my golden cup, so
You pour and I'll say stop
Planes I'm hopping, cards I'm dropping
No shop can fill me up
There's a little black hole in my golden cup, so
You pour and I'll say stop, so
Take me into your arms again
And shake me from L.A. hallucinations
Haven't seen the boy in ages
Used to stay up all night he and I
Filling up each of these pages
But the teeth come out when the camera flashes
We said we'd always be the same
But we lost each other in the game 'cause suddenly Planes I'm hopping, cards I'm dropping
No shop can fill me up
There's a little black hole in my golden cup, so
You pour and I'll say stop
Planes I'm hopping, cards I'm dropping
No shop can fill me up
There's a little black hole in my golden cup, so
You pour and I'll say stop, so
Take me into your arms again
And shake me from L.A. hallucinations
Buzzfeed buzzards and TMZ crows
What can I say that you don't already know?
Buzzfeed buzzards and TMZ crows
If I just lie here then will you let me go? Planes I'm hopping, cards I'm dropping
No shop can fill me up
There's a little black hole in my golden cup, so
You pour and I'll say stop
Planes I'm hopping, cards I'm dropping
No shop can fill me up
There's a little black hole in my golden cup, so
You pour and I'll say stop, so
Take me into your arms again

And shake me from L.A. hallucinations
Take me into your arms again
And shake me from L.A. hallucinations
Take me into your arms again
And shake me from L.A. hallucinations
